Gentlemen:

What I have read in the press regarding the "settlement details" of the proposed agreement has made me most angry.

Allowing more MS 'stuff' into the classroom is reinforcing MS's monopoly for years down the road.

And speaking of that road, it is littered with the stripped carcasses of other companies that developed a product only to have it bundled into Windows, at times with all the code intact (Stacker, for instance).

The only way this is going to work is to separate MS into two - one for the OS and the other for other software products. You know it and I know it and the industry knows it. Extract digit and do it.

Yours most sincerely,
